MAKE OATH AND SAY THAT:

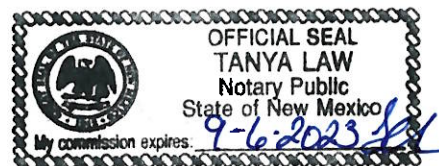

My siblings & I were raised on a Ranch near Carrizozo, Lincoln Co., N.M. We had a well which produced hard water for the cattle & animals of the Ranch. ^{ALSO used for trees, bushes, plants-flowers,} We also had a cistern like other Ranches in the area. When it'd rain, the water dropped from the corrugated metal roof into the metal gutters which were then carried to our cistern where we lowered buckets down to obtain our 'soft' water for drinking, cooking Beans, etc. All our ancestors & extended families had cisterns for rain water collection.
